1. Policy Statement	The School of Audio Engineering (NZ) Ltd, trading as SAE Institute (SAE), upholds the principle that all applicants seeking to enrol are treated fairly and equitably. SAE has open, fair and transparent procedures that are based on clearly defined criteria for making decisions about the selection of students and provisions for transfer. Students will be selected on merit based on the published criteria.
2. Purpose	The purpose of this policy is to define the principles and conditions informing the admission criteria under which applicants can be admitted to and enrolled in programmes with reasonable prospects of success in their studies. This policy covers admission and enrolment of admitted applicants and applies to admissions, re-admissions and transfers for all the SAE programmes.
3. Scope	This policy applies in the context of operations in New Zealand and is applicable to students enrolled with, or intending to enrol with SAE Institute. Procedures for SAE campuses internationally may vary in compliance with statutory requirements in other countries of operation. Students registered with SAE Auckland who transfer their studies to a campus outside New Zealand, will have their registration with SAE in New Zealand terminated and are required to adhere to the guidelines, policies and procedures of the legal entity to whom they have transferred their registration. This policy is applicable to all students or prospective students of SAE, irrespective of their place of residence, campus or mode of study.

6.2 Selection Criteria

Where there are more applicants than the number of places available, a selection process may be applied. An offer of place in a diploma or degree programme will be extended to applicants who meet the entry criteria and demonstrate the potential to successfully complete the programme on the basis of any of the following:

- Material provided with the application form
- A portfolio of work that represents the applicant's level of achievement

- An entrance interview
- Evidence of ability to cope with the academic demands of the programme (for those without University Entrance)
- Curriculum vitae (optional)

Applicants who submit a formal application to enrol in the programme, and who meet the entry criteria may be invited to submit a portfolio of work and/or participate in an interview. The purpose of the interview is to assess the applicants' suitability for the programme. It will determine whether an applicant is offered a place in the programme, and if so, at what level of the programme the applicant will be offered a place. Applicants are welcome to enlist whānau support.

6.3 Special Admission

Domestic applicants aged 20 years or above who have not met the General Admission or entry requirements for a programme but whose skills, education or work experience indicate that they have a reasonable chance of success¹ may be eligible for Special Admission. Special admission will be granted at the discretion of the Academic Manager or designated nominee. Such applicants may be required to successfully complete a foundation, bridging or tertiary introduction programme as a condition of entry into higher level programmes.

6.4 Commencement of Studies (International Students)

International students who have successfully applied for an SAE programme of study are required to provide evidence of a NZ Student Visa prior to the commencement of studies.

6.5 Specific Study Situations

a. Part-time Study

Courses can be taken independently, but full-time study is recommended because of the collaborative nature of the degree. Applications for enrolment in part-time study will be negotiated with the Head of Department so that a coherent programme of study can be designed. The selection of courses available to part-time students is dependent upon prerequisites.

b. Re-enrolment after a five year absence

The re-enrolment into the degree after an absence from the programme of five years or more is at the discretion of the Academic Manager, who will consider grades previously achieved, similarity of structure and content and a students' suitability for continued study as well as the time lapse since the last enrolment. The decision to allow re-enrolment may be dependent upon the student's completion of a bridging course or courses. A recommendation will then be made to the Academic Manager, who has the final decision to accept or decline the enrolment.
